The Admirals and Monsters get right back at it today as they play for the second straight day and fourth and final time this season. Milwaukee will look for a split in the season series after falling 6-3 to Cleveland last night for just their third regulation loss in their past 11 games. The loss dropped the Ads record to 29-28-4-3 on the season, which is good for 65 points and fifth place in the Central. Meanwhile the win for the Monsters snapped a five-game losing streak and clinched their spot in the Calder Cup Playoffs. They own a 34-25-6-1 record and 75 points, placing them in third place in the division. Following today's game, the Ads will head to Winnipeg for a pair of important games with the Moose as they battle for positioning with just over two weeks left in the regular season.
